

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, October 4. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated October 3.

From the Camp at Rivolta, Sept. 18.

THE Duke of Vendome has casu'd his Camp to be intrench'd in such a Manner, that he can safely send Succours wherever he thinks necessary. He has detach'd 1200 Men, to reinforce the Guard of the Posts of the fourteen Navillios, and of Bardolano. His Troops forrage near the Enemy without any Opposition, and abundance of Forrage is brought out of the Milanese to the side of the Adda, where the Regiments receive it. According to the Advices from Brescia and Bergamo, which are confirm'd by the Report of Deserters, Prince Eugene's Army is reduc'd to 8000 Horse and 9 or 10000 Foot, fit for Service. Some Days ago 2000 Men of the King of Spain's Troops were exchange'd against a like Number of Germans.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 6.

From the Imperial Camp at Treviglio, September 22. Our Parties make Excursions as far as Pavia and Cremona, and bring in much Booty. Most of our Officers that were wounded in the Battle of Cassano, being cur'd, are return'd to the Army; and Councils of War are frequently held. We wait for Reinforcements from Tirol. Prince Eugene is contriving how to take Winter Quarters in the Milanese, the Parmesan, and the Territory of Piacenza, and to send Succours to the Duke of Savoy.

From the Leid. Gaz. and Amst. Cour. dated Oct. 6.

Milan, September 22. The 2 Armies in Lombardy continue in their former Posts. The Imperialists have made an Attempt to possess themselves of Tredici-Ponti; But the French pretend to have repuls'd them with Loss. There is plenty of Provisions in the Camp of the Imperialists, and at a cheaper Rate than in the French Camp; and they frequently receive Reinforcements from the Emperor's Hereditary Countries. No Couriers have arriv'd here a long time from Spain; whence we conjecture Affairs go very ill in Catalonia for the 2 Crowns. Some Advices from Rome say, that Cardinal Janson having receiv'd an Express from the King of France, was preparing to go from Rome, but whither was not known.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated October 6.

Frankfort, Sept. 30. The Emperor has sent Order to the Prince of Hohenzollern to repair to Italy, to serve in the Army there in the same Station Count Leiningen did; but 'tis reported that Prince has sent an Express to Vienna to desire the Emperor to dispense with his going thither, in Consideration of his ill State of Health. The new Levies for the Emperor are carried on with great Success in Bohemia, Silesia, and his Imperial Majesty's other hereditary Provinces; the Estates of Bohemia alone have engag'd to furnish 10000 Men.

From the Amst. Gaz. and Cour. dated October 6.

Turin, Sept. 16. Since the 9th of this Month the Enemy have receiv'd from Chivas 23 Mortars, 7 or 8000 Bombs, and 15 Pieces of Cannon; they have now 26 Pieces for Battery: They still threaten this

City with a Siege, and to employ 90 Cannon in it; and have already plac'd 4 Pieces in Battery on the other side of the Doria, with which they fir'd the 14th Instant upon our Redoubts between that River and this Town; but without doing any Damage. They are busy in intrenching themselves, and putting Men into all the Cassines or Houses that stand near their Camp, for their greater Security. They do not appear to be in a Condition yet to form the Siege of this Place, having but 14000 Men, which Number lessens daily by sickness: Yesterday they sent 500 to Casal; and there are 2000 in the Hospital of their Army. They give out they wait for a considerable Reinforcement from France, but have yet receiv'd no more than 350 Men of the Troops that block up Montmelian. In the mean while his Royal Highness loses no Time to get the Works that are already begun perfected, and to order new ones, that he may oblige the Enemy to raise their Batteries at a great Distance from the City, and render the attacking of it the more difficult. He has Troops more than sufficient for his Defence; and has dispos'd all things so well, that instead of fearing the Enemy should attack us, we entertain Hopes of seeing their Army broken and wasted that they will be forc'd to give over the Enterprize and draw off. The French have endeavour'd to retake Asti (which they lately quieted,) by Surprise, by the Help of some Peasants of the Montferrat: But their Design was discover'd and prevented, and his Royal Highness has since reinforced the Garrison with a Detachment of Horse.

From the Amst. Cour. and Leid. Gaz. dated Oct. 6.

Ratisbon, September 28. and 30. The Bavarian young Men, who were order'd to repair to a certain Place of Rendezvous, to be list'd into the Emperor's Service; fly out of the Country dreading to be sent to serve in Italy under Prince Eugene. The Estates of Bavaria have resolv'd to send to Vienna Count Leonard de Toring, the Bishop of Fahnbach, and the Burgomaster of Straubing, as their Deputies, to remonstrate to the Emperor the miserable Condition their Country is in. Count Lewenteyn having caus'd a Person newly come from Italy with the Emperor's Pass to be seiz'd, upon his giving out that he was a Cook and being discover'd to be an Officer; he was search'd, and several Letters written by some Inhabitants of Munich were found about him; The Contents of which Letters being part difficult to be understood, and part capable of a double Meaning, the Persons who wrote them are taken up and confin'd till this Matter be thoroughly inquired into.

Maastricht, Oct. 3. The Duke of Wirtemberg, General of the Danish Troops that are in the Service of the States, arriv'd here Yesterday from Aix la Chappelle, where he had been to wait upon the Queen Dowager of Denmark. This Morning a Regiment of Danes that is garrison'd here pass'd in Review before him; and he is since gone to our Army encamp'd at Herenthal. General Slangenberg, who not long since left that Army on Pretence of Indisposition, is retir'd to his Estate in Guelderland. Lieutenant General Hompesch, the Earl of Albemarle, and several other general Officers, have left Aix la Chappelle, to return to the Army.
